

This rare 23 acre property is situated alongside the river and the hiking/biking Mendota Trail with several possible build sites for the home or mountain retreat of your choice. The pastureland is fenced for livestock with a spring-fed pond and former well-site. This property has access to high-speed internet and electric power. In addition, this [...]

- Single Family Lot
- Land
- Active

